The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 09/496,389	Applicant(s) MARCHEGIANI, BORIS V.
	Examiner Ella Colbert	Art Unit 3696

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 28 September 2009.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1, 4-6, and 8-11 are pending. Claims 1, 8, and 11 have been amended in this communication filed 09/28/09 entered as Response After Non-Final Action.
2. The Objections to the claims from the Office Action mailed 06/22/09 have been overcome and are hereby withdrawn. However, here are still remaining claims objections necessitated by the amendments as set forth here below.
3. The 35 USC 112, Second Paragraph Rejections from the Office Action mailed 06/22/09 have been overcome in part and are withdrawn in part as set forth here below.

Claim Objections

Claims 1 and 8 are objected to because of the following informalities:

The "said" should be omitted in claim 1. Claim 8 has a similar issue with the usage of "said". The Method claims do not contain "said" and the System claims and method claims should parallel each other in the instant application.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 11 as amended are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: in claim limitations five and six as follows: Wherein the at least one term is changed to create an amended tender, wherein the amended tender includes that at least one term and a changed term of the tender, wherein the tender initiator creates the amended tender upon accepting the request from the tender recipient to change the at least one term of the tender,”.

Claim 11 has a similar issue.

Also, on page 6 of the amendment, claim 11 recites the same claim limitation as the last claim limitation on page 5 of the amendment. The claim limitation at the top of page 6 should be cancelled.

Applicant has too many “wherein” clauses. The following examples of language in a claim that may raise a question as to the limiting effect of the language in a claim are: (A) statements of intended use or field of use, (B) “adapted to” or “adapted for” clauses, (C) “wherein” clauses, or (D) “whereby” clauses. The list of examples is not intended to be exhaustive.” MPEP 2106 II C.

Claims 4-6 and 8-10 are also rejected because they depend from a rejected base claim.

Remarks

The withdrawn claims 15, 17, 19-22, 24, 26, 28, 38, and 39 need to be cancelled before the application can be allowed.

After the claim objections and rejections have been overcome and extensive updated search is conducted and if there are not any references found that would reject the claims the application will be allowed.

Conclusion

“An essential purpose of patent examination is to fashion claims that are precise, clear, correct, and unambiguous. Only in this way can uncertainties of claim scope be removed ...”. In re Zletz 13 USPQ2d 1320 (Fed. Cir. 1989).

“We are not persuaded by any sound reason why, at any time before the patent is granted, an applicant should have limitations of the specification read into a claim where no express statement of the limitation is included in the claim ... However, this court has consistently taken the tack that claims yet unpatented are to be given the broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the specification during the examination of a patent application since the applicant may then amend his claims, the thought being to reduce the possibility that, after the patent is granted, the claims may be interpreted as giving broader coverage than is justified.” In re Prater, 162 USPQ 541 (CCPA 1969).

USPTO personnel are to give claims their broadest reasonable interpretation in light of the supporting disclosure. In re Morris, 127 F.3d 1048, 1054-55, 44 USPQ2d 1023, 1027-28 (Fed. Cir. 1997).

Limitations appearing in the specification but not recited in the claim should not be read into the claim. E-Pass Techs., Inc. v. 3Com Corp., 343 F.3d 1364, 1369, 67 USPQ2d 1947, 1950 (Fed. Cir. 2003) (claims must be interpreted “in view of the specification” without importing limitations from the specification into the claims unnecessarily). In re Prater, 415 F.2d 1393, 1404-05, 162 USPQ 541, 550- 551 (CCPA 1969). See also In re Zletz, 893 F.2d 319, 321-22, 13 USPQ2d 1320, 1322 (Fed. Cir. 1989) (“During patent examination the pending claims must be interpreted as broadly as their terms reasonably allow.... The reason is simply that during patent prosecution when claims can be amended, ambiguities should be recognized, scope and breadth of language explored, and clarification imposed.... An essential purpose of patent examination is to fashion claims that are precise, clear, correct, and unambiguous. Only in this way can uncertainties of claim scope be removed, as much as possible, during the administrative process.”).

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
